Zarvos Coaching and Consulting Announces Scholarship for Returning Iraq Veterans

(INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA July 28th, 2009) Zarvos Coaching and Consulting, a coaching organization dedicated to personal transformation and leadership, announced today a scholarship fund has been established for returning Iraq War veterans. Nora Zarvos, co-owner and facilitator stated “We appreciate the sacrifice our troops are making for our country and want to make a difference for men and women returning home.

The Breaking Through curriculum includes three workshops designed to help attendees experience a life that is successful, fulfilling, and passionate. The scholarship fund provides access to the first and second levels of the Breaking Through curriculum, each a five-day experiential coaching workshop. “Our intention is to support these courageous men and women with the re-entry into their families, communities and homeland life.” Zarvos explained.

The scholarship program allows Iraqi veterans to attend the first two levels of the program at no charge.

“After the sacrifice they have made, I believe they get to have the opportunity to create a life that is joyful, loving, and abundant.” Jim Zarvos, co-owner and facilitator commented.
